

November 2018 OCQG Blog

A WORD FROM OUR NEW PRESIDENT

As upcoming president, I would like to invite all the incoming and outgoing Executive and Committee Chairs and co-Chairs to the November board meeting. In order to have a smooth transition of responsibilities, the outgoing board members will be sharing their knowledge plus transferring any paperwork associated with each position.

Plan to meet November 15th, at the Carriage House Meeting Room at 10am. There will not be a board meeting in December. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me any time at 541-223-1093 or stevediane@q.com.

Sincerely, Diane Tillotson

Membership Renewal:

If you'd like to have your photo updated for the 2018 Oregon Coastal Quilters Guild Membership Directory please send a selfie to Ruth Johnson. Her email is: johnson.ruth@yahoo.com. You can also have a new photo taken at the November meeting and can request a new name tag. Membership cards will be given upon receipt of 2019 membership dues.

You're Service is Appreciated!

At the last General Meeting, President Phoebe Hein read thank you notes from, Sage Kramer who won a Quilt Kit at the Quilt Show, Foster Parents organization for the Burp Bibs made by the guild, the Gabriel Project for moms and babies for the beautiful quilts, Lincoln County Advocacy Center for the positive influence from the guild with the donation of quilts and a special thank you from Loyd Palmer for the Quilt of Valor that he received at a family camping trip.

2020 Raffle Quilt Ideas:

Several Ideas were presented at our October guild meeting for consideration. If you have an idea please be ready to present it for voting by members in our November meeting.

2020 Raffle Quilt Ideas:

Community Quilters:

Join our hard working group of helpers on November 1st at Family Fabrics in Waldport. You can come and go as you wish anytime between 10 and 2.

Sue was contacted by Donate Life Northwest, Oregon Organ Donor for the State of Oregon regarding the making of a quilt from quilt squares made by the donor's family and recipients. There is a book of donor/recipient stories that travel with the quilt. There will be a work party for this group at the Newport Elks the end of January to make the quilt blocks and the group has made a request for up to 5 guild members to help the participants. Information and date will be posted on a future OCQG Blog.

2019 Raffle Quilt:

We're looking forward to seeing the finished 2019 Raffle Quilt at the November meeting. Plan on picking up your raffle ticket packets then as well.

2019 Retreat:

Please remember to sign up for the Retreat Classes if you're going to the retreat. Some of you requested pictures of the class projects and an email will be going out to all of you in the next couple of days. Cyndie, Linda Stroup, Sherry Lowrey and I are working behind the scenes to hopefully give you another really fun retreat. Before you know it January will be here. I can't wait to see all of the projects you'll be working on!
Georgia

2019 Challenge Quilt and Veteran's Quilts:

If you missed the October meeting here's what was discussed:

Ginger Dale announced that Center Medallions for a Veterans Quilt will be the challenge quilt. Size is 24 x 24 or 24 x 36, committee will provide 3 fat quarters, sign-up and fabric will be available at the January meeting.

Documentation:

Documentation workers please remember that the next date is November 10th at the Carriage House. We look forward to seeing you there if you signed up to bring a quilt on that date. Please download the documentation forms from the OCQG website and fill them out ahead of time and bring along with your quilt when you come.

Please contact Twy Hoch as soon as possible if you can't make your appointed time. If you have quilts that you've been putting off documenting stay tuned to the next blog where we'll be announcing the rest of the documentation dates for this year. This is an important way to preserve the quilt history of our community and provides historical information for future generations on the quilts we make or the ones we've inherited.

Finishing School:

If you have any holiday projects you need to finish up or just want to sew with friends, join Paulette today (October 25th) from 10-4 at the Carriage House. This will be the last Finishing School until January.

Recreation Center Hangings:

Debbie Mosley will be returning your Halloween quilts at the November meeting. Please bring in Fall, Thanksgiving and Christmas quilts to hang for the holidays. Smaller quilts are preferred and please make sure they have a hanging sleeve and provide the name of the quilt and quilter. If you'd like to sell your quilt, please price it and notify Debbie.

November Program:

Our speaker at the November meeting will be Dawn White who is teaching the the Jr. Billie Bag class. The topic will be Recurring Motifs as Springboards to Inspiration. Dawn was scheduled to speak at the October meeting but had to reschedule due to a last minute emergency.
