

Oregon Coast Quilters General Meeting December 13, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 12:30 p.m. by President, Phoebe Hein.

Minutes

Jean Amundson moved for acceptance of the November general meeting minutes. Motion was seconded by Debbie Mosley and approved by members present.

Phoebe Hein welcomed everyone to the meeting and announced that we would start our meeting with the presentation of Honor Quilts to four Veterans followed by the holiday potluck.

Veterans Quilts

Sonny Hamner gave a presentation reminding all present of the special meaning of our Veterans Quilts Program, a very special way to give thanks and honor to those who have served our Country. A very special ceremony for everyone in attendance. Beautiful red, white and blue quilts were given to:

Don Taylor, U.S.Navy, 1983-1990, 3rd Class Hull Tech

Bob "Trucker" Howe, U.S.Marines 1961-1964 , Military Intell

Merlin "Skip" Lovell, U.S. Navy, 1953-1957 Korean War, QM3

Don Morrison, U.S. Navy Seaman, 1965-1970 Vietnam, Admiral Staff

We were honored to have the veterans join us for our festive holiday potluck.

Following a very tasty holiday potluck with lots of good conversation, laughter and time spent with friends, Phoebe called the business meeting to order.

Featured Quilter 2019 was announced by Jean Amundson, Jackie Stankey and Darcy Trego by presenting the following facts:

1. learned to sew on a treadle machine while visiting her grandmother
2. "graduated" to a 1935 Singer featherweight
3. her incentive as a young person to sew was diminished because she lived on Taiwan for a number of years and could take a catalog picture to a local dressmaker who would copy it for $3
4. she was "bitten" by the quilting bug in the mid-80's
5. after retirement from Oregon State University she was invited to a guild meeting by Gladys Schoonover
6. she built the guild's first website, has been president, workshop chair, block of the month co-chair, newsletter editor, quilt show co-chair and membership committee chair
7. she helped to organize the guild's first retreat which has now become an annual event
8. many of her quilts have an Asian theme

Our 2019 Featured Quilter believes that quilters are compassionate, giving people – folks who will be there for you in both joyful times and in heartache. She says, that is the true heart of quilting! The 2019 Featured Quilter is NAN SCOTT!

Committee Reports

Quilt Show – Jackie Stankey informed the group that sign-ups and folders that explain the duties of the committees are on the table, ready for people to sign-up.

Community Quilters – Sue Stephenson reminded the group that “there is no holiday” for the quilt needs in the community. There are “quilt bundles” available today for members to take, quilts that need binding, more needs for burp rags and pillow cases for foster children.

To Date in 2018 – 240 Quilts Distributed

45 Quilts in Inventory

19 Sit Upon Pillows (Childrens’ Afterschool)

55 Totes

59 Burp Rags

36 Hospital Pillows

22 Oncology Chemo Bags

6 Hospital Teddy Bears

15 Stocking Baby Buntings

THANK YOU COMMUNITY QUILTERS!

Phoebe Hein read thank you notes from My Sisters Place staff and board and Latimer Textiles.

Guild Retreat – Georgia Sabourin reported that there are 3 openings, if you are interested please let her know. Final payments for the retreat are due today.

2019 Raffle Quilt – Jane Szabo has the beautiful, “fully blinged” quilt on display for all to see. The quilt is beautiful and sparkly thanks to the blinging by Dolores Thomas. Tickets are available from Jane Szabo and everyone is encouraged to use them as a Christmas gift or stocking stuffer.

President, Phoebe Hein thanked her officers for a year well done and recalled being asked by Cindy McEntee four years ago to be the vice president, which meant 2 years as VP and 2 years as president. Phoebe said it has been a wonderful experience and a great way to get to know members, all areas of the guild and a fascinating “study in behavior”. Fun, fun, fun. Phoebe is now looking forward to signing up to be a part of additional guild activities and is going to co-chair the Challenge Quilt for 2019. Phoebe thanked her officers for a job well done and then installed the 2019 Officers:
