COMMITTEES

2019 Quilt Show – Jackie Stankey reported that people need to sign-up for committees. Currently there are not enough committee chairs to hold the January meeting. Lisa Taylor reminded members we need to make “little quilts” for the Silent Auction table. Size requirement is no more than 18X24.

2019 Raffle Quilt – Jane Szabo has tickets and fliers ready, please pick up tickets and sell them to friends and neighbors. The quilt tag will include the names of all members that helped on the quilt. Sign-up is available to help sell tickets at the Albany Quilt Show on February 1st & 2nd.

Community Quilters – Sue Stephenson once again thanked the membership for their outstanding work and reminded the group that the need for quilts continues. Sue shared some of the quilts, a baby quilt, a quilt for the new Habitat house, a sudoku quilt, a quilt made from dog print fabrics. The committee needs tops made, quilting and binding of quilts. Burp Cloth pattern is available and Pillow Cases for Foster Children are needed.

Membership – Ruth Johnson reported 90 members present at the meeting. Ruth thanked her table helpers and reminded the group that the Directory deadline is January 28th. Ruth also reported that we have some new advertisers. Directories will be available at the next guild meeting with membership cards.

Finishing School – Karen Oetjen reported it will start up again on January 24th.

Documentation – Twy Hoch reported this is the 20th year for the guild documentation. There will be training workshops on Saturday January 12th & 19th at the Carriage House from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. The process of documentation is fascinating so come join the group.

Rec. Center Hangings – Debbie Mosley reported that many positive comments have been received from the public (including men) regarding the quilts. Small Quilts will be hung next and returned for pick up at the March meeting. Quilts for March should be “quilts in green”.

Reimbursements – Janet Sylvester, treasurer reminded the membership that if reimbursement forms are given to her before the meeting, the checks will be ready for pick-up during the break or after the meeting.

Challenge Quilt – Ginger Dale reported fabric is available for the challenge quilts and encourages all guild members to participate. The blocks will be displayed at the quilt show and Ginger reminded everyone they do not have to be a part of the voting. Blocks can be as simple or complicated as the quilter wishes and should be 24 1/2” square or 24 x 36. Blocks can be turned in when finished and need to be in by June meeting to be included in the voting.

Veterans Block of the Month – Ginger Dale reminded everyone to sign out a packet.

Programs/Workshops – Janet DeSau is looking for committee members. Please talk with her if you are interested in helping. The February 14th program will be Marie Bostwick with a program titled “When The Going Gets Tough – The Tough Turn to Quilting”.

2019 Guild Retreat – Georgia Sabourin reminded members to bring a Birthday Bag for someone else, it does not need to be quilt related and not more than $10. Billy Bag Workshop Show & Share – Becky, Karen, Judy, Phoebe, Liz, Phyllis, Gail and Jan shared their beautiful Billy Bags with the membership. The bags are very creative with lots of pockets with no two bags being the same. All the bags were beautiful, lots of colors and themes.
