

OREGON COASTALQUILTERS GUILD GENERAL MEETING SEPTEMBER 12, 2019

The meeting was called to order at 6 p.m. by President, Diane Tillotson.

Announcements

Diane announced that the memorial service for Phyllis Mitchell's husband Gordon will be on September 21st at the Church of the Nazarene in Newport at 1 p.m.

Minutes

Debbie Mosley moved for acceptance of the August General Meeting minutes. Motion was seconded by Twy Hoch and passed by a voice vote.

Merchandising – Becky Mershon announced that Dennis McGregor has agreed to do a new image for the Quilt Guild's 30th Anniversary in 2021. Dennis has done the previous artwork for the guild and has agreed to the new art piece for the same price $3,800. In order to have the design items ready for the 2020 Quilt Show the order needs to be placed now with a down payment of 50% which equals $1900. Total cost will be $3800 and the balance due will be included in the 2020 budget. Joan Johnson moved that the Guild commission Dennis McGregor to design a new art piece to be used by the Guild and that $1900 be paid as a down payment. Motion was seconded by Sandy Lane and passed by a voice vote.

Committee Reports

Nominating Committee – Meralee Wilson reported that sign-ups for committees will be at the October meeting and encourages everyone to consider being a committee chair. Talk to Meralee or current chairpersons to get further information about the committees.

Veterans Workshop – Ginger Dale reported that Saturday, September 21st there will be a workshop at Bayshore to make veterans quilts featuring the challenge medallions and everyone is encouraged to participate. Pins and ribbons from the Quilt Show can be picked up today. Everyone that has worked on a Veterans quilt can pick up a pin. The next Veterans workshop will be Friday, October 21st at Atonement Lutheran Church. Bring your sewing machine and come for a day of fun work. There are currently 41 Veterans on the quilt list. September 29th there will be 7-8 quilts presented at the 10am service at Atonement Lutheran Church. In November 15 quilts will be given out on Veteran's Day.

Finishing School – Paulette Stenberg reminded everyone that finishing school is a great time to work on projects and meet new people. You can come and just enjoy the fellowship, no project is required.

Membership – Gail Chipman reported 83 members present, 2 guests and 1 new member, Julia Bostwick.

Directory Update – Nan Scott shared how to use the online membership directory. If you need help, contact Nan. Please remember the password is not to be shared.

Programs/Workshops – Janet DeSau reported that next month the program will be Mister Domestic with “Let Go” - How to find joy in quilting. There will be a workshop on Saturday, October 11th at Atonement starting at 10am. Cost is $30.

2020 Guild Retreat – Georgia Sabourin reminded everyone that today is the last day for the $50 nonrefundable deposit. There are 5 on the waiting list.

Quilt Show – Darcy de la Rosa reported the labels for quilts displayed at the Quilt Show have arrived and can be picked up at the membership table.

Program
